

LET'S KNOW THE BIBLE

CONFERENCE BOARD MEMBERS

HERBERT W. BATEMAN IV

Dr. Herb Bateman, founder of the Cyber-Center for Biblical Studies, has earned his BS in Biblical Studies from Cairn University (1982); his Th.M. (1987) and Ph.D. (1993) in New Testament Studies from Dallas Theological Seminary, and completed postdoctoral study at the University of Notre Dame.

He has been teaching Bible courses in academic institutions since 1986 and within the local church and on the mission field since 1978.

He has spoken at various conferences and written for the church and the academy. Some of his publications include: Authentic Worship (Kregel, 2001), Four Views on the Warning Passages in Hebrews (Kregel, 2006), Interpreting the Psalms for Preaching and Teaching (Chalice, 2010), Jesus the Messiah (Kregel, 2012), Interpreting the General Letters (Kregel, 2013), and a Commentary on Jude for the Evangelical Exegetical Commentary series (Logos, 2015).

R. W. LEE COMPSON

Lee, Senior Pastor at Milford First Brethren Church in Northern Indiana has earned his BS from Grace College (2003) and M.Div. degree from Grace Theological Seminary (2007).

He has been involved in vocational ministry since 2002 when he began as an intern at Pleasant View Bible Church focusing on college and young adult ministry. In January 2013, God led Lee and his wife Stephanie to Milford First Brethren where they enjoy serving and leading.

Lee was a contributing author to Glimpses of Christ: Sermons from the Gospels (Kainos Books, 2013), has written several articles for The Voice magazine, and serves as an instructor at Grace College. He has been on the LKBC board since 2015.

MICHAEL HONTZ

Mike, Senior Pastor at Pleasant View Bible Church in Northern Indiana has earned his BA from Appalachian Bible College (2001) and his MDiv from Grace Theological Seminary (2007).

He began as a Youth Pastor in Pennsylvania. After moving to Indiana, he began ministering at Pleasant View Bible Church as a pastoral intern in the areas of youth and music. After graduating from Grace Seminary, Mike became Pleasant View's Youth Pastor and eventually transitioned to become the Associate Pastor in 2009 and the Senior Pastor in 2011.

Mike currently serves as an instructor at Grace College. He has been on the LKBC board since 2016.
